DISCUSSION: For several years now, the Board of Supervisors has provided funding through the Parks and Recreation Department for a parks program partnership with the Police Activities League (PAL).

Through field trips, sports programs, lunch programs, tutoring, outdoor recreation, and the annual Christmas show, the partnership with PAL provides benefits to the entire community.

The Parks and Recreation Department and the Sheriff's Department would like to give a verbal report to the Board on the activities and accomplishments of the Parks-PAL partnership.

POLICY ISSUE:

The Parks-PAL partnership contributes in significant ways to the Board's priorities of ensuring a safe and healthy community, and delivering excellent community services.

STAFFING IMPACT:

None.
