DISCUSSION:

As the Conflict of Interest Code Reviewing Body for all local government agencies within Stanislaus County the Board of Supervisors must approve an agency's Conflict of Interest Code. After a holding public meeting the Stanislaus County Child Abuse Prevention Council approved their Conflict of Interest Code. After an agency adopts their Code they must submit it to the Board of Supervisors. Upon receiving the Conflict of Interest Code from the agencies the Board of Supervisors places the code on their agenda for approval.

POLICY ISSUE:

The Board of Supervisors is the Conflict of Interest Code Reviewing Body for all agencies whose boundaries are solely within Stanislaus County.

STAFFING IMPACTS:

There are no staffing impacts associated with this item.

Board of Supervisors
Attention: Christine Ferraro Tallman, Clerk of the Board
1010 10th Street Place
Modesto, CA 95354

Dear Christine,

In August of 2005, the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors approved the establishment of the Child Abuse Prevention Council (CAPC) under Welfare and Institutions Code Chapter 12, Section 18980. However, one item that remained unapproved by the Board was the approval of the Conflict of Interest Code for the CAPC. We are submitting this board item to remedy this situation and to conform to the Board's requirements that all Board and Commissions approved by the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors have as part of their requirements the establishment of a Conflict of Interest Code by which all members will abide by.

On an annual basis, as appointed members under the Board of Supervisors, all the CAPC members have been completing a statement of economic interest form. At the March 6, 2008 meeting, action was taken and the Conflict of Interest Code was approved unanimously by the Stanislaus County Child Abuse Prevention Council.

Sincerely,

Juan Ramirez, Manager II, CSA
Stanislaus County Child Abuse Prevention Council member

CONFLICT OF INTEREST CODE

OF THE STANISLAUS COUNTY CHILD ABUSE
PREVENTION COUNCIL (CAPC)

The Political Reform Act, Government Code Section 81000, et seq., requires each state and local government agency to adopt and promulgate a conflict of interest code. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted a regulation, 2 Cal. Code of Regs., Section 18730, which contains the terms of a standard conflict of interest code. It can be incorporated by reference and may be amended by the Fair Political Practices Commission after public notice and hearings to conform to amendments in the Political Reform Act. Therefore, the terms of 2 Cal. Code of Regs., Section 18730, and any amendments to it duly adopted by the Fair Political Practices Commission are hereby incorporated by reference and along with the attached Appendix consisting of this Attachment A and Attachments B through D, in which members are designated and disclosure categories are set forth, and the place of filing is specified, shall constitute the Conflict of Interest Code of the Child Abuse Prevention Council.

Designated members shall file statements of economic interests with the council. Upon receipt of the statements of the various designated members, the designated council shall make and retain a copy and forward the original of these statements to the place of filing, as indicated on Attachment D.
