SUBJECT: ADVISORY BOARD ON SUBSTANCE ABUSE PROGRAMS

According to Bylaws for the Advisory Board on Substance Abuse Programs, representatives of the Modesto Police Department, the Stanislaus County Sheriff, and the California Highway Patrol serve as standing members. Officer Tom Killian has represented the California Highway Patrol on the Advisory Board on Substance Abuse Programs since December 2000. At the January meeting of the Advisory Board, Officer Killian announced his retirement from the California Highway Patrol and resigned from the Advisory Board on Substance Abuse Programs. Officer Killian has been an active and valued member of the Advisory Board. His expertise, especially in the area of prevention and early intervention with youth, has been especially beneficial to other members and Advisory Board activities.

Attached is an application for membership from Officer Eric M. Parsons. The California Highway Patrol has designated Officer Parsons as the new representative for that agency. Members of the Advisory Board and Behavioral Health and Recovery Services are requesting that Officer Parsons be appointed to fill the indefinite term vacated by Officer Killian.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.
