Approval to Introduce and Waive the First Reading of an Ordinance Repealing Chapter 9.65 of the Stanislaus County Code Regarding Establishment of the Stanislaus Family Justice Center Commission

DISCUSSION:

Chapter 9.65 was adopted in 2008 to establish the Stanislaus Family Justice Center Commission. The Commission was established based on a finding that the victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, child abuse or elder abuse, and more than thirty public agencies and non-profit organizations recognize that there is a compelling need in Stanislaus County to create and implement a comprehensive, collaborative, and integrated system with a multi-disciplinary team of professionals under one roof to help and support these victims of violence. The purpose of Chapter 9.65 was to establish a Stanislaus Family Justice Center Commission to address the needs of victims of violence, including the creation and implementation of a Family Justice Center as an integrated, comprehensive, and collaborative system of information and services to build healthy relationships by providing a combination of programs, services and interventions in one location.

No members were ever appointed to the Stanislaus Family Justice Center Commission, and since the Commission was established 2008, instead a vigorous effort to establish a private non-profit organization developed to perform the functions and objectives of the Commission. A private non-profit organization does exist on behalf of the Center, including an acting Board. The need for a County operated program no longer exists. Because of that change, staff recommends that the Board of Supervisors introduce and waive the first reading of the proposed ordinance and set the matter for adoption at the following meeting.

POLICY ISSUES:

Approval of this ordinance supports the Board's priorities of promoting A safe and healthy community and an example of an Effective partnership

STAFFING:

There is no staffing impact associated with this request.
