Attention: Ms. Pam Villarreal

Please accept this letter as my official resignation from the Assessment Appeals Board. When I first agreed to serve, it was not made clear that there was a test involved to qualify for the required mandatory training. I have fulfilled all other qualifications and spent a significant amount of time reviewing the Assessment Appeals Manual, only to fail the review test with a score of 72%. The new test I have been presented now has 100 questions, twenty more than the first test and no references to specific areas of the manual.

At this time, I do not have the necessary "spare" time to go through this process again. I appreciate the time I have spent on the board, but feel that the requirements for new members is more than what I wish to commit to at this time.

Very truly yours,

Judith G. Callaway, CPA
