To Whom It May Concern:

The East Stanislaus Resource Conservation District supports the application for appointment to the District's board submitted by Darrell Cordova and included with this letter.

Mr. Cordova, as a local advocate for resource concerns, would be an asset to the District as a board member. In addition to being a local landowner and producer, Mr. Cordova has been involved in many groups around the county, including Farm Bureau, and is extremely knowledgeable in many of the projects or issues we work on. He is also familiar with many of the other entities we often partner with, making his involvement with ESRCDC something we wholeheartedly would welcome.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jamie Meek
Administrative Manager
East Stanislaus Resource Conservation District
