

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
OF THE COUNTY OF STANISLAUS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Special and Regular Session
Supervisor Mayfield and Caruso absent
Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

Tuesday

September 14, 2004

Special Session convened at 8:33 a.m.

Recessed to closed session at 8:34 a.m. for Labor Negotiations: Agency Negotiator Patricia Hill Thomas. Labor Organization UDW. Government Code §54954.5(f).

Supervisor Mayfield arrived at 8:38 a.m.

Supervisor Caruso arrived at 8:44 a.m.

Reconvened at 9:01 a.m. for Regular Session

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Eva Schicke, a Tuolumne County Firefighter who died fighting a fire near Mariposa County.

Ida Mae Mullins voiced concerns regarding cars parked on the new sidewalks in the Shackelford neighborhood. Sheriff Weidman responded that the Sheriff's department can immediately tow cars that are parked on the sidewalks, and that he will work on updating the County Code regarding abandoned vehicles. She also asked County staff to look into a church located at 110 El Paso Avenue in Modesto.

Dave Thomas spoke regarding County leadership, fiscal management, Board members compensation, and the hiring of a public relations consultant. County Counsel Mick Krausnick responded to statements made by Mr. Thomas, and advised him that he made false statements during his presentation.

Naria Jordan, of the UDW, spoke regarding the founding of the UDW. She thanked the Board for their leadership and working partnership in the labor negotiations for IHSS employees. She invited the Board to a small reception today, between 12-6pm, and to another reception at the end of the month.

Kristi Rosenquist, Henry Dill, Ed Donafrio, Pat Boyd, and Chris Wagner, all IHSS employees, thanked the Board for the increased wages and benefits for the IHSS employees.

Susan Robinson, of the Coalition for Cats and Dogs, spoke regarding a visit by the Chairman of the Animal Advisory Committee at her home yesterday morning. She raised several concerns regarding the Chairman's visit. She also raised concerns with the Director of Animal Services still doing convenience euthanasia. The Interim CEO noted that they will look into Ms. Robinson's concerns, and respond in writing and in a public forum.

Ken Beard spoke regarding the problems he is having with the Planning Department in obtaining a temporary mobile home permit to house his in-laws for medical reasons. The Chairman responded that the Board will look into this issue.

2004-696

Corr 1 Referred to the Sheriff and the Probation Department, a Notice of Public Hearings from the California Board of Corrections regarding proposed revisions to the Minimum Standards for Local Detention Facilities.

Corr 2 Referred to the Agricultural Commissioner and the Department of Planning and Community Development, a notice from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service regarding the final rule designating the California Tiger Salamander as a threatened species and a proposed rule to designate critical habitat for this animal.

Corr 3 Referred to the Agricultural Commissioner and the CEO/Office of Emergency Services, two letters from the State of California Office of Emergency Services regarding the U.S.D.A. and the U.S. Small Business Administration granting a disaster designation for the County of Alameda and the contiguous counties of Contra Costa, San Joaquin, Santa Clara, and Stanislaus due to agriculture losses caused by drought that occurred on March 1, 2004 and continuing.

Corr 4 Referred to the Agricultural Commissioner and the CEO/Office of Emergency Services, a letter from the State of California Office of Emergency Services regarding the U.S. Small Business Administration granting a disaster designation for the County of Merced and the contiguous counties of Fresno, Mariposa, Madera, San Benito, Santa Clara, Stanislaus and Tuolumne due to abnormal high temperatures and windy conditions that occurred on March 25, 2004.

Corr 5 Referred to the Chief Executive Office and Stanislaus County members of the San Joaquin Valley Rail Committee, a letter from the San Joaquin Valley Rail Committee regarding the creation of a Joint Powers Authority to oversee the operation of the San Joaquin Valley trains as authorized by Senate Bill 457.

Corr 6 Acknowledged receipt of claims and referred to the CEO-Risk Management Division the following claims: Cheryl Brey; Nissan North America, Inc. and Nissan Technical Center, North America, Inc.; Jerry Lewis Pumphery; Raquel Zepeda; Jorge Julius Sales; Larry Womack; Roman Ornelas; Vickie Huntley McCafferty; Carl H. Hogle; Chris Neal; Mychelle Vylonis; Clement Quinton Hayes and Sandie Goings; Roger G. Ladd; and, Annette deBoer.

Supervisor Grover thanked the Departments, Interim CEO Patricia Hill Thomas, and the Budget team for today’s budget presentation and for their work on the FY 2004-05 Budget. He also thanked Patty Hill Thomas for this past year, for her personal sacrifices, and how she stepped up and met the challenge of being our Interim CEO over the past 14 months. The other Board members also made additional comments on the excellent work Ms. Thomas has done during this period of time.

Supervisor Simon spoke regarding the visit of the French delegation from our Sister County Mayenne, France. He presented to the Board a sculpture, which was given by the delegation to the County. The sculpture is symbolic of our Sister County friendship and was made by a local French artisan. He also noted that Dave Thomas' comments today were an attempt to inject himself into Supervisor Mayfield's campaign and requested that the "Public Comment Period" not be allowed to be used as a campaign platform.

Supervisor Mayfield responded to the comments from Susan Robinson regarding the County's practice that stray animals must be kept for five days but if an animal owner comes in they can request that their animal to be euthanized prior to the five days. He requested the Board to review this policy. Supervisor Paul noted that a citizen can take their animal to a veterinarian to be euthanized with no waiting period.

Supervisors Mayfield and Grover attended a meeting regarding food processing residue application on agriculture land and the State Water Resources Board regulation of this matter. He would like the Board to address this issue prior to the State changing these regulations. Supervisor Grover noted that these regulation changes are often enacted without the use of appropriate science.

Chairman Caruso attended a dedication ceremony yesterday for a sign at the City-County Airport. He also requested that the pictures of former Board members' be hung in the building and that other historical artifacts of the County be displayed. He also requested that the MIA flag to be flown at 1010 Tenth Street. He requested that these matters be placed on the next agenda for the Tenth Street Place JPA for consideration.

Supervisors Mayfield and Chairman Caruso attended the opening of the River Oaks Soccer Field in the Ceres area, which provides services to both Supervisorial Districts 2 and 5.

Chairman Caruso noted that the Keystone Business Park in Patterson is having its grand opening event today.

The Interim CEO thanked the Board for their kind comments today.
