

In cooperation with the Stanislaus County Department of Environmental Resources (SCDER), ACT Environmental Services is proud to offer complimentary Hazardous Waste Management Training.

Who should attend? Businesses that are generators of hazardous wastes

What will you gain? By attending the classes listed below, SCDER and ACT will guide you to be in compliance with Health and Safety Code (HSC) and Title 22 California Code of Regulations (CCR), which are administered by Department of Toxic Substances Control.

TOPICS:

1. First Responder (ACT)
2. Hazcom (ACT)
3. Generator Classification/Tiered Permitting Classification (DER)
4. Common violations/Return to Compliance (DER)
5. DOT Manifest (ACT)
6. CERS reporting (DER)
7. Used Oil Filter Management (DER)

DATE

Friday, March 3, 2017

TIME

9:00am – 4:00pm

(light lunch provided, noon – 1pm)

LOCATION

Harvest Hall, Room ABC
3800 Cornucopia Way
Modesto, CA 95358

RSVP

Alvin Lal, R.E.H.S.

alal@envres.org

Sr. Hazardous Materials Specialist
Stanislaus County Dept. of Environmental Resources
Direct: (209) 525-6793

Or ACT: (209) 722-4228

We look forward to seeing you!