Dana Smith and his performing dog Lacey to appear at Modesto Library

Dana Smith will perform juggling, acrobatics and circus acts, while his dog, Lacey, “sings” and performs other entertaining tricks Saturday, Jan. 6, at 1 and 2:30 p.m. at the Modesto Library (downstairs auditorium). This fast-paced, energetic show will delight audiences of all ages.

Children will use their imaginations, learn social skills through audience participation and they will be introduced to the resources of the library. Through special children’s programs, the Stanislaus County Library fosters the love of reading and opens the door to knowledge.

Space is limited. Free same-day tickets will be available one hour before each show. This program is sponsored by the Stanislaus County Library Foundation, through a grant from Modesto Sunrise Rotary. For more information, please call the Modesto Library Children’s Department at 558-7810.
