Dana Smith and his performing dog Lacey to appear at Oakdale Library

Dana Smith will perform juggling, acrobatics and circus acts, while his dog, Lacey, “sings” and performs other entertaining tricks Thursday, Dec. 28, at 2 p.m. at the Oakdale Library, 151 S. First Ave. This fast-paced, energetic show will delight audiences of all ages.

Children will use their imaginations, learn social skills through audience participation and they will be introduced to the resources of the library. Through special children’s programs, the Stanislaus County Library fosters the love of reading and opens the door to knowledge.

Space is limited and free same-day tickets will be required. Tickets will be available beginning at 10 a.m. This program is sponsored by Friends of the Oakdale Library. For more information, please call the Oakdale Library at 847-4204.
