“Crosspulse” presents intercultural music and dance at libraries

Crosspulse, a rhythm-based, intercultural music and dance group, will perform Dec. 28 and 29, at libraries in Riverbank, Oakdale, Modesto and Salida. The programs teach about the vital role that rhythm plays in performing arts throughout the world, and explore how this commonality of rhythm can connect various cultures in unexpected ways.

The Crosspulse performances feature body music, or music and dance created via the sound and movement of the body, such as clapping, slapping, snapping, stepping and vocalizing. These rhythms and movements are demonstrated in both traditional and contemporary applications.

These free music and dance performances will be offered:

Friday, Dec. 28

- 1:30 p.m. at the Riverbank Library, 3442 Santa Fe Ave., Riverbank, 869-7008
Provided through a grant from Target.
- 3:30 p.m. at the Oakdale Library, 151 S. First Ave., Oakdale, 847-4204
Sponsored by Friends of the Oakdale Library.

Saturday, Dec. 29

- 11 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. at the Modesto Library, 1500 I Street, Modesto, 558-7810
Space is limited and free tickets, available one hour before each show, will be required.
Sponsored by Friends of the Modesto Library.
- 3 p.m. at the Nick W. Blom Salida Regional Library, 4835 Sisk Rd., Salida, 543-7315

The Crosspulse performances are recommended for all ages. For more information, please contact the selected library or visit www.stanislauslibrary.org.
