Gallo Center for the Arts has giant ribbon cutting for the public 240 foot ribbon will wrap the building

Stanislaus County, CA – It's time to celebrate in a big way, as a 240 foot ribbon that is six feet high will be cut at the Gallo Center for the Arts.

Time: 6 p.m. on Monday, September 10, 2007

Location: Gallo Center for the Arts, 1000 I Street Modesto

Visuals: Marching Band and Color Guard; Boy Scouts flag presentation; statements from VIPs; Giant Ribbon (240 feet by 6 feet with giant bow wrapping the building); 20 restaurants doing a food sampler; entertainment from three different bands; guided tours of the arts center.

“This public dedication event will be a great celebration, as this is the people’s arts center,” stated Bill O’Brien, Chairman of the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors.
