Sheriff's Investigator's Recognized for Their Efforts in Home Invasion Case

MODESTO, CA-Tuesday February 6, 2007 the Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors will recognize members from the Stanislaus County Sheriff's Department and the Districts Attorneys Office for their work in the 2003 home invasion robbery cases. Three of the suspects from that case were sentenced last week to 480 years and 30-life sentences between them. The following members of the Sheriff's Department will be recognized for their significant role during the investigation; Assistant Sheriff Bill Heyne, Sergeants Mario Cisneros, Mike McEntire, Ralph Ghimenti, Detectives Marc Nuno, Mark Copeland, and Priscilla Woods. Retired Sergeant Lloyd Allen and former Detective Ed Campbell will also be recognized.

"We could not have been successful in this investigation without the joint efforts of all the law enforcement agencies involved. Not only here in Stanislaus County, but San Joaquin and Merced County law enforcement agencies as well," said Sheriff Adam Christianson.

The Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors meeting will be held Tuesday February 6, 2007 at 1010 10th Street, Modesto, CA at 9:00 AM in the Board Chambers.
