Sheriff's Detectives Investigating Homicide at Night Club/Bar

TURLOCK, CA-Stanislaus County Sheriff's Detectives are investigating a homicide at the Spritz Club/Bar in Turlock. At 2:00 AM Saturday morning deputies responded to the night club/bar for reports of several people that had been shot. When deputies arrived they did not find anybody that was shot or injured. While deputies were investigating the shooting call at the bar, Modesto Police was responding to a 911 cell phone caller who stated he was lost in downtown Modesto and looking for a hospital because his friend had been shot at a Turlock bar. The 19 year old victim was transported to a local hospital where he later died from his injuries.

Detectives have little information about the suspects in this shooting and are looking for anyone that might have information. Detectives believe that a Black or dark colored SUV was involved with the shooting.

Anyone with information about this case is encouraged to contact Detective Greg Gilstrap at the (209) 525-7080. Callers can also leave an anonymous tip by calling Crime Stoppers at (209) 521-4636 and may be eligible for a cash reward.
