Travel to Italy at the Library

Sons of Italy present "International Festival Highlight: Italy"

Families are invited to take an imaginary trip to Italy, when Sons of Italy member Antonella Turchetti, and Laura Boniolo present International Festival Highlight: Italy at libraries in Modesto, Salida and Oakdale. The programs, offered through a partnership between Modesto's International Heritage Festival and the Stanislaus County Library are scheduled for:

- Saturday, Feb. 10, 11 a.m. at the Modesto Library, 1500 I Street, Modesto, 558-7810
- Saturday, Feb. 10, 3 p.m. at the Salida Library, 4835 Sisk Road, Salida, 543-7315
- Saturday, Feb. 24, 2 p.m. at the Oakdale Library, 151 S. First Ave., Oakdale, 847-4204

The presenters will take the audience on an exploration of Italy and its rich cultural traditions, including geography, language and the origin of Italy's name, Italian holidays and celebrations, as well as Italian food, art, games, toys and crafts.

There is no admission fee, however, space is limited. Free parking is available. These cultural programs are sponsored Stanislaus County, MOCSE Credit Union and The Modesto Bee.
