Sheriff's Department Promotional Ceremony

MODESTO, CA - Sheriff Adam Christianson is pleased to announce the promotion of Lieutenant/Chief Tim Beck to Captain. Lieutenant Tim Beck began his full-time career in law enforcement in 1984 with the Escalon Police Department. He was hired by the Stanislaus County Sheriff's Department in 1988 working as a Patrol Deputy, Background Investigator, Academy Recruit Training Officer, Gang Detective and Crimes Against Children Detective. Tim was promoted to Sergeant in 1997 working in Patrol, Crimes Against Persons, Court Services, Training Division, and Riverbank Police Services. After being promoted to Lieutenant in 2005, he was assigned as Patrol Watch Commander and also served as the Administrative Lieutenant and is currently assigned to the position Chief of Police Services for the City of Riverbank.

"We continue to focus on building a strong department dedicated to serving the community," said Sheriff Adam Christianson. "Tim's experience and leadership will make him a valuable resource for department and the community"

The promotional ceremony will take place on Monday, September 15, 2008 at the Stanislaus County Sheriff's Department located at 250 E. Hackett Road in Modesto. The ceremony will begin at 11:00 AM.
