Local Doctors and Community Supporters Running for Charity to Raise Money to Support Local Health Needs

STANISLAUS COUNTY – The Stanislaus Family Medicine Residency Program of the Health Services Agency is partnering with the Health Services Agency Foundation of Stanislaus County to sponsor their 21st annual Run for Health on Saturday, April 19, 2008 at 9:00 a.m. at East La Loma Park off La Loma Avenue in Modesto. Registration begins at 8:00 a.m. The run celebrates National Public Health Week.

To register you may visit the HSA Foundation website at www.hsafoundation.org or by calling Cora Hernandez at (209) 576-3523.

The race features five and ten kilometer distances and a one-mile fun run. Walkers are welcome to participate in the five kilometer, ten kilometer or one-mile distances. Awards go to the top finishers and a post-race raffle drawing will be held.

The entry fee is $20 before Wednesday, 04/09/08, $25 race day, and children twelve and under are $10. Proceeds will go to the Health Services Agency Foundation to be used to support the Reach Out and Read program (www.reachoutandread.org). There will be free T-shirts while supplies last!
