Dinner Theater at the Modesto Library

Get ready for a fun night out with the family at the Modesto Library with “Dinner Theater” on Wednesday, May 19 at 6:30 p.m. “Voice of the Wood” will present two stories that will use sound effects, dramatic narration and masked movement to achieve a magical effect. “Sea Serpent’s Daughter” and “Nessa’s Fish” will be brought to life in an imaginative way that will help children gain audience participation skills and enhance their imaginations.

Dinner Theater, sponsored by the Stanislaus County Library Foundation, through a grant from Omega Nu, is a special family program designed for children ages six and up. Participants bring their own dinner and the library provides the free theater. Dinner begins at 6:30 p.m. with the show following at 7 p.m. Admission is free, but space is limited. Free tickets are available now at the Children’s Desk and must be picked up on or before Monday, May 17.

For more information, please contact the Modesto Library Children’s Department at 558-7810.
