Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors and Stanislaus County Equal Rights Commission recognize Two County Employees October 27, 2010

MODESTO, CA - Each year the Stanislaus County Equal Rights Commission recognizes one or more Stanislaus County employees for their outstanding commitment or achievement in furthering the County's Equal Rights Program. The Commission met on August 18, 2010 to consider nominees for the 2010 Equal Rights Award and voted to accept the nominations of Denise Hunt, Director of Behavioral Health & Recovery Services and Patricia Hill Thomas, Assistant Executive Officer, Chief Executive Office.

The Stanislaus County Equal Rights Commission will recognize Ms. Hunt and Ms. Hill Thomas for their outstanding achievements in promoting the County's Equal Rights Program. The ceremony will take place in the Board Chambers located at 1010 10th Street on Wednesday, October 27, 2010 at 3:30 p.m.

The County's Equal Rights Commission is a five-member Community-based body that is appointed by the Board of Supervisors. It serves as a resource to the Board of Supervisors and County staff for equal rights improvements in county service. The commission holds public meetings the third Wednesday of every other month at 3:30 p.m. The next meeting will be held on December 15, 2010. The commission is currently comprised of Leslie Beggs, Dionicio Cruz, Carmen Morad, Pamela Cullors and Jeremiah Williams.
