Activated Storytellers to Perform at Modesto Library

The Modesto Library is pleased to present Act!vated Storytellers! The free program, funded by the Aileen T. Gisler bequest, takes place Saturday, April 17, 12 p.m. in the Downstairs Auditorium of the Modesto Library, 1500 I Street.

The Act!vated Storytellers will perform multicultural folktales. The theatrical production is full of non-stop action, American Sign Language, acrobatic tricks, physical comedy, slapstick, audience participation, and imaginative props and a gigantic oversized book. Two "Triumphant Tales" stories will be featured during this 45-minute program.

Admission is free, but space is limited. Same-day free tickets will be available at the Children's Desk beginning at 11 a.m. The program is recommended for children ages six and older.

For more information, please contact the Modesto Library Children's Department at 558-7810.
