Afghan culture presentation offered at the Modesto Library

Author, Eshan Entezar, will present a lecture on Afghan culture at the Modesto Library on Saturday, June 4, at 1 p.m. This lecture will include a comparison of Afghan and American cultures, an introduction to the importance and nature of culture, and a discussion about the four components of culture: power distance, uncertainty avoidance, individuality vs. collectivity and the gender gap.

This free program will be presented in the downstairs auditorium of the Modesto Library, located at 1500 I Street. Free parking is available. To reserve a seat, please call 558-7814 or visit the Modesto Library Reference Desk.
