PRESS RELEASE

For Release: 9 AM, May 3, 2011

Stabbing Victim Dies at Hospital

Modesto, CA – At 11:00 PM last night, Stanislaus County Sheriff's Deputies responded to a 911 call for a subject who had been stabbed in the 500 block of Benson Ave in Modesto. The victim, 22 year old Jacob Daniel Love of Modesto, was at a friend's house on Benson Ave. Love was standing in front of the residence with friends when two unidentified subjects walked by on the street. Love and the two subjects began to verbally argue. Love walked out to the street to confront the subjects and the argument turned physical. During the physical fight Love was stabbed in the chest. The two subjects fled the area on foot. Love was transported to a local hospital where he died from his injuries.

The Stanislaus County Sheriff's Investigations Division was called and is currently following up all leads in the case. Anyone with information on this investigation is encouraged to call Stanislaus County Detective Ken Hedrick at 209-525-7083.
