Ukulele Fun at Modesto Library

People of all ages are invited to attend a unique program of family friendly songs performed by a ukulele band called the Funstrummers. The leaders of the band will also be discussing the history of the ukulele and the music between songs. The performance will take place at the Modesto Library in the downstairs auditorium on Saturday, Oct. 15 at 12:30 p.m.

The Funstrummer Ukulele Band is a group of ukulele players of all levels of experience that get together to play, sing and have fun with ukulele music.

Admission is free, but space is limited. Same-day free tickets will be available at the Reference Desk beginning at 11:30 a.m. The program is recommended for the entire family.

For more information, please contact the Modesto Library Reference Department at 558-7814.
