Galactic Movie Night at Modesto Library

Dust off your light saber and mingle with your favorite characters or dress up as one yourself, make crafts including an origami Yoda and watch the 1977 classic film on Wednesday, November 30 at the Modesto Library. Crafts and characters begin at 4 p.m. with the movie beginning at 5 p.m. in the downstairs auditorium. Written and directed by George Lucas, a Modesto native, this space saga created a movie and marketing empire.

Light refreshments will be served. Modesto Library's movie license prohibits publicizing the title of the movie, but customers can ask library staff for the title. For more information, please call 558-7814.
