Sex Offender Compliance Checks

Modesto, CA – On Wednesday morning State Parole agents and detectives from Modesto Police Department and Stanislaus County Sheriff's Office conducted sex offender compliance checks through out the county on high-risk sex offenders.

Agents and detectives completed 16 compliance checks through out the day and arrested 7 people found to be in violation of their conditions of parole. The officers found that the use of GPS monitoring was one of their best tools in locating those people who were violating their conditions of parole.

By combining resources for the day agents and officers were able to conduct a large amount of searches in one day and arrest 7 people for being in violation of their parole conditions. This type of collaboration on operations such as this one helps make an impact through out the community.
