ADAM CHRISTIANSON, SHERIFF - CORONER

PRESS RELEASE

For Release: 4:30 PM, May 5, 2011

Suspect Identified in Homicide and Fire Investigation

Modesto, CA – The Stanislaus County Sheriff's Department Investigations Unit Identified Clint C. Wilson, 31 of Modesto, as a suspect in the homicide of Guadalupe Tubera. Wilson is described as a white male adult, 5'8", 240 Lbs, with multiple tattoos. He is currently wanted for murder.

The fire occurred around 1:30 yesterday afternoon in the 1700 block of John St in Modesto. When the fire department arrived on scene they located a deceased victim inside the residence, later identified as 31 year old Guadalupe Tubera (male) of Modesto. At that time, the cause of death was undetermined but has been elevated to a homicide after an autopsy was completed earlier today. Detectives are asking for assistance in locating the whereabouts of Clint Wilson.

Anyone with information regarding the case is encouraged to contact Detective Darwin Hatfield with the Stanislaus County Sheriff's Investigations Division at 209-525-7100. If Wilson is located, please do not attempt to contact him and call 911.
