PRESS RELEASE

For Release: 9:00 PM, September 12, 2011

Sheriff's Office Deputies and Firefighters Search for Potential Drowning Victim at Woodward Reservoir in Oakdale, CA

Oakdale, CA – Sheriff's deputies and firefighters responded to Woodward Reservoir (14528 26 Mile Rd) just outside of Oakdale, CA at about 5:48 PM for a potential drowning victim. Deputies and firefighters have been searching for the last two hours and at this point have been unable to find the victim. The Sheriff's Office Dive has also been called out to assist in the search.

A male and female had been floating on a tube at Mtn View Point on the south side of Woodward Reservoir. At some point it appears that they began to walk around in the cove of Mtn View Point and a 30 year-old male went under the water. At this point the male subject has not been identified and no other details are available. Sheriff's deputies and divers will work through out the night trying to locate the male victim.
