Margie and Paul of Golden Bough

Margie and Paul of the Celtic music group, Golden Bough, will explore the music of Ireland at the Ceres Library on Thursday, August 2 at 11 a.m. During the show, a variety of rare acoustic instruments used in Irish and American folk music will be presented and explained. These include the better known: guitar, violin, and recorder, to the more unusual: Celtic harp, penny-whistle, and spoons. Participants will also be encouraged to sing along to the music during this amazing show!
