December Events at the Oakdale Library

If you're in the mood for seasonal crafts, books and games then a visit to the Oakdale Library is a must! Mark your calendar and be sure to be in attendance for all the library has to offer in December!

The month begins with a festive Edible Tree Craft! Children will learn how to make beautiful trees they can later eat! This craft program will take place on Thursday, Dec. 5 at 3:30 p.m.

A program on the Affordable Health Care Act will be presented on Thursday, Dec. 12 at 6 p.m. The discussion will include an introduction to Covered California, eligibility information, and details on insurance options. An explanation of the law and its requirements will be given. A question and answer session will follow.

Teens will have an opportunity to show off their gaming skills at the Library's Wii Game Day on Monday, Dec. 16 at 3:30 p.m. Participants will be able to learn tactics and teamwork while playing fun Wii games!

Oakdale Mayor Pat Paul, will visit the library for the Mayor's Book Club on Wednesday, Dec. 18 at 10:30 a.m. Families can enjoy a special story read by the mayor!

The library finishes off the month with a Button Making Craft on Thursday, Dec. 19 at 3:30 p.m. Teens can bring or create their favorite art to make unique buttons!

The Oakdale Library is located at 151 S. First Ave. in Oakdale. For more information, please contact the library at (209) 847-4204.
