May Events at the Oakdale Library

The Oakdale Library has programs for all ages this May. There is something for everyone this month, so make sure to plan a visit to the library.

Teens can learn tactics and strategy at the Wii Game Day on May 19. Stop by the library at 3:30 p.m. to take part in the games.

Local attorney Gina Leguria will host an informative seminar at 6 p.m. on May 20 entitled "The Best Things in Life Aren't Things." Participants will discover how to set estate planning goals, including how to transfer an estate to beneficiaries and how to protect material wealth.

If you love Story Time, be sure to visit the library on May 21 for "The Mayor's Book Club." Join Oakdale Mayor Pat Paul as she reads a story at 10:30 a.m. for a special Story Time!

Teens who are feeling crafty will enjoy the Button Making Craft on May 29. Teens are invited to bring or create artwork to make unique pins. This program begins at 3:30 p.m.

The Oakdale Library is located at 151 S. First Avenue in Oakdale. For more information, please call (209) 847-4204.
