MEDIA ADVISORY

Massive jail breaks ground at 9:30 a.m. today in Stanislaus County

Stanislaus County, CA – The Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors and Sheriff Adam Christianson along with other State and Local Officials in Stanislaus County are going to break ground for the historic $113 million public safety center expansion and the Public is invited to attend.

- WHO: Stanislaus County Board of Supervisor and multiple officials
WHAT: Groundbreaking for massive jail expansion
WHEN: Friday, August 15 at 9:30 a.m.
WHERE: Stanislaus County Sheriff's Department
250 E. Hackett Road
Ceres, CA
WHY: The project is part of a massive State funding of local jail projects. This is the first of its kind in the State.

The project, which is a partnership between the State of California and Stanislaus County, is the first AB 900 Phase II (2011 Local Jail Construction Financing Program) project in the State to be established by the State Public Works Board and to begin construction. The construction effort will consist of three separate projects including two Maximum Security Housing units with medical/mental health space, a Day Reporting Center for life skills and job training, and an Intake, Release and Transportation facility.

The Project is scheduled to be complete in late 2016.
