October Events at the Modesto Library

Visit the Modesto Library this October to take advantage of a selection of free events and informative programs, beginning with Scrapbooking Fun on Saturday, Oct. 4. From 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. local scrapbooker Anna Soto will help participants express themselves through the art of scrapbooking. Participants are encouraged to bring their own photographs and materials to personalize their scrapbooks, however a limited number of materials will be provided.

Join the Modesto Library and Community Hospice for "Caregiver College: New to Medicare?" on Wednesday, Oct. 8 at 7 p.m. This free program will focus on the various Medicare options and the Medicare enrollment process. Please RSVP by calling Community Hospice at 578-6300.

Experience Extreme Couponing! at the library on Saturday, Oct. 11 at 1 p.m. Speaker Nancy Miller will teach participants where to find the best coupon deals, the rules to follow when shopping with coupons, and how to shop at your favorite stores for their best deals! Participants are encouraged to bring ideas, resources and coupons (the extra and expired) to share. Registration is required; please call the Modesto Library Reference Desk at 558-7814 to reserve a seat.

Visit the library for "Poetry: Our Worlds Anew" on Saturday, Oct. 25 with Salvatore Salerno and Modesto's current Poet Laureate, Gillian Wegener. Salerno will host a poetry writing workshop at 1 p.m., where poets are encouraged to bring their own poems to work on and evaluate. Following the workshop, Salerno and Wegener will read from a selection of their poetry. Attendees will also be invited to read their poetry aloud. To register for the poetry workshop, please call the Modesto Library's Reference Desk at 558-7814. Walk-ins are welcome for the poetry reading at 3 p.m.

The Modesto Library is located at 1500 I Street in Modesto, with free parking in the lot behind the library and on surrounding streets. For more information, please contact the Modesto Library at (209) 558-7814.
