May Events at the Oakdale Library

The Oakdale Library will offer crafts and interactive activities this May, beginning with a craft for teens and adults on May 11 at 10:30 a.m. Participants will learn how to turn recycled book pages and origami paper into decorative paper roses.

The library will offer free Computer Basics classes for adults on Tuesdays at 10:30 a.m. Participants will receive a tour of Windows, as well as an introduction to the various parts of a computer, and more. Space is limited; please reserve a seat by calling the library at (209) 847-4204.

Children and their families can build LEGO displays for the library on Thursday, May 14 at 3:30 p.m. Children under the age of 4 are welcome to participate, however they must have direct parental supervision at all times.

Parents are invited to bring their toddlers and preschoolers to "Wee Move and Play" on Tuesday, May 19 at 3:30 p.m. This program features an hour of music, movement, and sensory play during which children can enjoy unstructured play time with their peers.

Kindergarten through third grade students and their families are invited to "Building STEAM with Día: Seed Germination" on Thursday, May 21 at 3:30 p.m. Following a reading and discussion of The Tree Lady: The True Story of How One Tree-Loving Woman Changed a City Forever by J. Hopkins, children will learn about germination by planting a seed that they may take home and watch grow. Refreshments will be served.

The Oakdale Library Book Club will offer two opportunities to discuss the classic novel Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen. On Tuesday, May 26 participants can choose from the 11:30 a.m. meeting or the 6:30 p.m. meeting. Light refreshments will be provided.

Children can take part in a Superhero Training Academy at the library on May 28 at 3:30 p.m. Those who complete the "official superhero checklist" will receive a special certificate.

These programs are sponsored by the Friends of the Oakdale Library. The Oakdale Library is located at 151 S. First Ave. in Oakdale. For more information, please call (209) 847-4204.
