July Events at the Oakdale Library

The Oakdale Library will offer free programs for all ages this month, beginning with a tie dye craft on Monday, July 6 at 3:30 p.m. Teens and adults are invited to make a Captain America-themed tie dye shirt.

Children and their families can build LEGO displays for the library on Thursday, July 9 at 3:30 p.m. Children under the age of 4 are welcome to participate, however they must have direct parental supervision at all times.

Kindergarten through third grade students and their families are invited to "Building STEAM with Día Family Book Club: Build a cardboard box guitar" on Thursday, July 16 at 3:30 p.m. Following a reading and discussion of A Baby Elephant in the Wild by C. O'Connell, children will learn about vibration by building a cardboard box guitar. Refreshments will be served.

"Wee Move and Play" will take place on Tuesday, July 21 at 3:30 p.m. This program features an hour of music, movement, and sensory play for toddlers and preschoolers.

Children are invited to take part in a Superhero Training Academy at the library on Thursday, July 23 at 3:30 p.m. Those who complete the "official superhero checklist" will receive a special certificate. Participants will need to demonstrate brain power and strength, complete missions, and develop a special power and secret identity.

On Tuesday, July 28, the Oakdale Library Book Club will offer two opportunities to discuss The Ghost of Hannah Mendes by Naomi Ragen. Participants can choose from the 11:30 a.m. meeting or the 6:30 p.m. meeting. Light refreshments will be provided.

These events are sponsored by the Friends of the Oakdale Library. The Oakdale Library is located at 151 S. First Ave. in Oakdale. For more information, please call (209) 847-4204.
