BURBANK-PARADISE ELECTION DAY – AUGUST 25TH

Modesto, CA – August 25, 2015 – “The Burbank-Paradise Fire Protection District held its all-mail ballot special election today, Tues. Aug. 25, 2015, on Measure C,” announced Lee Lundrigan, Stanislaus County Clerk – Recorder - Registrar of Voters.

There were 2,698 voters eligible to cast their ballot within the Burbank-Paradise Fire Protection District in this election. If approved by 2/3 of the voters, Measure C would provide for imposition of a special tax by the district to use in performing necessary fire protection, prevention and emergency services, including acquiring, operating and maintaining fire suppression equipment, payment of personnel costs and funding capital improvements.

Voted ballots for the all-mail election had to be received in the Elections Office on or before 8:00 p.m. Election Day, Tues. Aug. 25, 2015. Pursuant to new law Elections Code 3020, ballots postmarked on or before Election Day will be counted if received by Fri., Aug. 28, 2015, when the election will be certified.

Go to www.stanvote.com for unofficial Election Night vote results. Final results will be tabulated and released as part of the completion of the canvass of the vote on Fri., Aug. 28, 2015.
