Supervisor Tom Berryhill Sworn in

Tom Berryhill, the newly elected Stanislaus County supervisor was sworn in to office today by Chairman Terry Withrow at the downtown 10th Street City/County Facility.

After serving twelve years in the state legislature, Berryhill was elected to the District 4 Board of Supervisors seat in November 2018. He is a small businessman and a fourth-generation California farmer. He has served on the Utilities and Commerce, Parks, Water, and Wildlife Committees. His tenure also includes serving as Vice Chair of the Agriculture Committee, Government Organizations, Human Services and Senate Rules Committees.

Berryhill is a strong supporter of the California public school system and universities. He attended California Polytechnic University, San Luis Obispo. He is married to his wife, Loretta. Supervisor Berryhill is excited to begin serving in Stanislaus County. "I'm thankful for all the support of the community and to all who have stood by me. I look forward to the next four years," he said Wednesday.
