Department of Parks and Recreation
FAQ for OFF-HIGHWAY VEHICLE PARKS

Revised: 3/15/2016

1. How many OHV parks are there in Stanislaus County?

Stanislaus County Parks and Recreation Department owns and operates two large Off Highway Vehicle (OHV) parks in Stanislaus County:

- a. La Grange Off-Highway Vehicle Park
- b. Frank Raines Off-Highway Vehicle Park

2. Do you have to have a registration?

Yes, all vehicle units must have an OHV registration in the form of a Red or Green sticker, or an on-road registration. Please refer to the OHV Laws and Regulations resource listed below for more details.

3. Does your park allow for green or red stickers? And what are park hours?

Green/Red Sticker have different regulations and riding schedules. Please see OHV Laws and Regulations below for more details. Frank Raines is open seasonally depending on weather conditions—it's park operation status is updated regularly on the County's OHV website at <http://www.stancounty.com/parks/>. La Grange OHV Park is open year round. Please note that park operations may vary and may not entirely match the red sticker riding schedule.

4. Where can green or red stickers be purchased or renewed and what do they cost?

Green/Red Sticker have different regulations and can be purchased from the DMV. Please check with California's DMV for the most current sticker cost and regulations.

5. What does a red sticker mean? And where can it be purchased?

A Red Sticker is the OHV registration for certain year manufactured vehicles that does not meet emission standards and can only be used at certain times of the year. Please refer to the OHV Laws and Regulations resource listed below for more details.

6. Do you have camping? Is there a limit to how long we can stay in the campgrounds? Days?

Camping is available at both off-road parks on a first-come first-serve basis. Camping is limited to 15 days.

7. What type of camping do you have?

Frank Raines has 34 full hook-up campsites and undeveloped camping. La Grange has only undeveloped camping.
