

STANISLAUS COUNTY
EMPLOYEE CONDUCT/BEHAVIOR EXPECTATIONS
APPROVED JANUARY 24, 2012/RESOLUTION #2012-026
WORKPLACE HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION POLICY

PURPOSE

Stanislaus County is proud of its tradition of a collegial work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Each individual has the right to work in a professional atmosphere, which promotes equal opportunities and prohibits discriminatory practices. AT STANISLAUS COUNTY, HARASSMENT, DISCRIMINATION AND RETALIATION WHETHER VERBAL, PHYSICAL OR ENVIRONMENTAL, IS UNACCEPTABLE AND WILL NOT BE TOLERATED.

It is the intention of this Policy to prohibit, eliminate and prevent unlawful harassment, discrimination and retaliation and its effects in the workplace. To do this, the County, through this Policy, will define unlawful harassment, discrimination and retaliation and will set forth a procedure for filing, investigating and resolving internal complaints.

POLICY

Harassment, discrimination and retaliation of an applicant or employee by an employee or non-employee on the basis of a protected classification is not acceptable and will not be tolerated. Protected classifications include, but are not limited to: race, color, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age (over 40), sexual orientation, or genetic history. Annually, the Board of Supervisors reaffirms its commitment to non-discrimination by adopting the County's Equal Employment Opportunity Non-Discrimination Statement. Please review the annual Non-Discrimination Statement for updates to protected classifications. The Non-Discrimination statement is located in each department, in the Personnel Manual, and on-line on the County's Equal Rights website.

This Policy applies to all terms and conditions of employment, including, but not limited to: hiring, job assignments, promotion, disciplinary action, layoff, re-employment, transfer, leave of absence, compensation and training.

Disciplinary action up to, and including, termination will be instituted for employee's behavior which conflicts with expectations as described in the definition of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation set forth in this policy.

HARASSMENT AND DISCRIMINATION

Discrimination and harassment behavior is a form of misconduct that violates this policy and in some cases may constitute discrimination that is in violation of federal and state law. When evaluating complaints of hostile, offensive or abusive conduct the County will consider both current legal standards and County Policy Examples of harassment, discrimination, and prohibited unlawful behavior include, but are not limited to:

- Harassment behavior of any kind that is verbal, physical, visual, or electronically communicated based upon a protected classification. Examples of prohibited unlawful behavior include but is not limited to, the following:
  - Speech such as epithets, derogatory comments, offensive remarks or slurs and lewd propositioning on the basis of a protected classification. This includes inappropriate sex-oriented comments on appearance, including dress or physical features, or race-oriented stories and jokes.
  - Physical acts such as assault, impeding or blocking movement, offensive touching, or any physical interference with normal work or movement when directed at an individual on the basis of a protected classification. This includes pinching, grabbing, patting, propositioning, leering, or making explicit or implied on-the-job threats or promises in return for submission to physical acts.
  - Visual insults, such as derogatory posters, cartoons or drawings related to a protected classification.
  - Circulation or posting of written materials or electronic circulation of jokes, messages, cartoons, pictures.
  - Conduct that affects or interferes with an individual's job performance that creates a hostile, offensive, or abusive working environment.
- Sexual harassment is illegal and is a form of sex discrimination forbidden by federal and state law. The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) defines sexual harassment as:
  - Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other acts of a sexual nature when such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly as a term or condition of an individual's employment; or
  - When rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
  - When such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating hostile or offensive working environment.
- Other examples of types of conduct which may constitute sexual harassment include:
  - Explicit sexual propositions, preferential treatment in exchange for sexual favors, retaliating or getting back at someone who turns down sexual advances;

- Sexual innuendos, suggestive comments; Sexually oriented joking or teasing, jokes about gender specific traits; or
  - Dissemination of printed visual material, display or electronic communication of offensive or obscene jokes, messages, or pictures.
- It is no defense to a claim of harassment that the alleged harasser did not intend to harass.

RETALIATION

Any retaliation against a person for filing a harassment/discrimination charge or making a harassment/discrimination complaint is prohibited. Retaliation occurs when adverse action is taken against an individual who, reports a concern about potential illegal or unethical conduct or a violation of Stanislaus County's policies or procedures. Employees (supervisors, co-workers and management) found to be retaliating against another employee shall be subject to disciplinary action up to, and including, termination.

COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Employees are encouraged to resolve issues and concerns under this policy at the lowest supervisory level of the organization possible given the circumstances of the issues involved. While Stanislaus County encourages individuals who believe they are being harassed to firmly and promptly notify the offender that his or her behavior is unwelcome, Stanislaus County also recognizes that power and status disparities between the individuals involved in the situation may require an alternative resolution process. In the event that such informal, direct communication between individuals is either ineffective or impractical, the County's Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Complaint Procedures should be followed in reporting a complaint of harassment, discrimination or retaliation. The County's EEO Complaint Procedure is located in the County's Personnel Manual and on-line on the County's Equal Rights website. To initiate the EEO Complaint Procedure, any employee, job applicant, or person seeking County services who believes he or she has been subject to harassment, discrimination or retaliation in violation of this policy may make a complaint orally or in writing with any of the following:

1. Immediate supervisor;
2. Any supervisor or manager within or outside the department;
3. Department Head;
4. Departmental Equal Rights Officer;
5. Director of Personnel or Chief Executive Office designee; or
6. County Equal Rights Officer.

This procedure shall apply to allegations of harassment, discrimination and retaliation in any employment action or in the delivery of public services based upon a protected classification. County departments may develop separate policies and procedures related to processing complaints regarding the delivery of public services in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws and regulations. Applicants or employees may also file a complaint with a government agency such as the Department of Fair Employment and Housing or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

APPLICATION

This Policy applies to all employees of Stanislaus County, including volunteers, contract employees, supervisory employees, department heads, and elected officials. All employees shall receive a copy of this Policy and shall sign a written acknowledgment that they have received and read a copy of the policy. A copy of this acknowledgment shall be placed in the employee's official personnel file.

CONCLUSION

Stanislaus County has developed this Policy to ensure that all its employees can work in an environment free from harassment, discrimination and retaliation. Stanislaus County will make every effort to ensure that all personnel are familiar with the Policy and know that any complaint received will be thoroughly investigated and appropriately resolved. Employees are encouraged to contact their department's designated Human Resources Representative, or any member of the Chief Executive Office Human Resources Division at (209) 525-6333, with any questions related to the provisions of this policy.
