

SUPERVISOR TRAINING ACADEMY MANDATORY SEXUAL HARASSMENT TRAINING 2017 CLASS SCHEDULE

Mandatory Sexual Harassment Training is mandated by California state law AB1825 and County policy. Any employee who performs supervisory functions is required to attend this training within the first six months of assignment to a supervisory or management position and every two years thereafter.

Currently, there is only one upcoming classroom session. All classes are taught at Harvest Hall Room D or E and begin promptly at 9:30 a.m. An online version is always available through PeopleSoft.

FAILURE TO COMPLY

Participation in this training is mandated by law and County policy. If you have been identified as an employee needing to attend this mandatory training, it is your personal responsibility to remain in compliance. Failure to comply with this requirement will impact your qualifications to remain in a supervisory or management position and may also result in personal liability.
