CEO Nino reported that 13 Central Valley counties sent a letter to the Governor requesting a change to the allocation of AB109 funds. She noted that the new State legislators have been sworn into office, and 8 Constitutional Amendments have been proposed. There is also an effort to downsize the 2014 Water Bond. The State Legislature has adjourned until 1/07/2013. The Special Session on healthcare has not been called yet. At the federal level, leadership discussions continue in regards to the fiscal cliff. There may be some additional infrastructure funds available for specific projects. The County's federal lobbyist has reached out to our Public Works Director and CEO Staff to identify shovel ready projects in the event these funds are available. She also reported that there is bipartisan interest in reauthorizing the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA).

Adjourned to closed session at 9:27 a.m. for Conference with Legal Counsel - Existing Litigation: One case: Leslie Cook v. Stanislaus County, Stanislaus County Superior Court Case No. 660775. Government Code Section 54956.9 (a).
