

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS
OF THE COUNTY OF STANISLAUS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

Regular Session
All Supervisors Present
Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag

Tuesday

October 26, 2021

Invocation was given by Cindy Marks from Pray Modesto.

Supervisor Withrow recognized MTC Distributing and presented them with a resolution upon their 100th anniversary.

Central Valley Association of Realtors provided an update on the current real estate market in Stanislaus County.

CEO Hayes, Public Health Officer Dr. Vaishampayan, and Director of the Health Services Agency Mary Ann Lily-Tengowski provided an update of the 2019 Novel Coronavirus (COVID-19) Emergency and Essential Services in Stanislaus County.

Miguel Donoso spoke regarding the Redistricting Committee and shared concerns regarding the distribution of demographic information. He asked County Counsel to be neutral in his participation on the committee.

Steven Morrow commented on Sheriff Dirkse's 10/05/2021 presentation regarding the community impact of state prison early releases. He supports the Sheriff and his dedicated employees and offered some insight into the rehabilitation process that goes on in state prisons.

Ashley Miguel revisited the topic of community education that she spoke about a couple weeks ago. She stated that the purpose of this program is to help the health of the community. She would like to see this outreach program implemented within the next four weeks to help protect another surge in COVID cases and shared an updated flyer with the Board members and audience.

Supervisor Withrow left at 10:13 a.m.

Megan Barajas, Great Valley Academy Salida teacher and parent, encouraged the County to do what it can to protect schools from losing staff and students in the face of this upcoming vaccine mandate. She is standing against the vaccine mandate and is requesting the County take a stance and deny the vaccine mandate.

Michelle Manuel, mother of three students at Great Valley Academy Modesto, stated that she is not anti-vaccine but for medical freedom. She asked the Board to stand up and support the right to choose.

Rebecca Yonan, nurse for 10 years, shared concerns regarding the education being provided about the vaccine. She stated that parents of children can no longer get religious exemptions. She voiced concerns about the vaccine being offered at schools and recommended testing for antibodies.

Joni Griep, a nurse, read a letter that she addressed to her children's school board last week. She stated she should not have to choose between vaccinating her children or in person learning. She asked the Board to stand up for her children and continue to ask questions.

Kari Fortin, mom of three and wife of a frontline healthcare worker, opposes a vaccine mandate. She asked the Board to represent the people in the community and work together against this mandate.

Janet asked the Board to listen to the parents and to replace the Public Health Officer and Director of HSA. She shared concerns regarding the vaccine and side effects after booster shots.

Kent Higgins shared concerns regarding COVID-19 vaccine. He stated that the vaccines are causing more trouble and herd immunity would have taken care of COVID-19 a long time ago. He shared statistics of vaccine side effects.

Madalynn Baker, a mother, nurse practitioner and educator, shared statistics on pediatric COVID-19 cases. She voiced concerns regarding an increase in pediatric mental health issues. She requested that the Board send a letter to the Governor opposing the K-12 vaccine mandate.

Rhonda Sharp, former Superior Courts employee, shared that she was terminated for not getting vaccinated. She believes that people should have a choice on whether to be vaccinated. She expressed concerns about the COVID-19 vaccine and what will come next.

Keryn Whitlow asked the Board to make a recommendation to preserve the public peace, health, and safety in Stanislaus County. She shared concerns regarding the vaccine mandate for children and expressed that children should not have to carry the burden of this decision.

Rosey Cole, a mom and registered nurse, spoke in opposition of the COVID-19 vaccine mandate for school aged children and the working class.

Jolene Daly, a mental health provider, spoke about her experience of working with people who were negatively affected due to COVID-19 and are having difficulty paying their bills or rent. She shared concerns regarding overreach that has caused this situation and asked the Board to take a stand.

Suzanne Dean voiced concerns regarding her husband's employer mandating the vaccine. She shared she does not want her grandchildren to receive the vaccine and plans to homeschool them. She supports choice.

Chris Vierra, former Ceres Mayor, shared concerns regarding the COVID-19 presentation and urged the Board to ask questions. He expressed concerns regarding the possibility of mandatory vaccine passports and requested the Board bring forward a resolution prohibiting mandatory vaccine passports at a future meeting.

Jake Kliatchko, a father of seven and married to a nurse, shared concerns regarding the media and government not telling the truth. He noted he came today to plead to the Board to do their due diligence to discover the truth.

Megan Short, a mother of four children and a small business owner, explained that her business was closed due to not being considered essential. She shared concerns about the COVID-19 vaccine and passports. She asked the Board to stand up for children and jobs.

David Teagel, a frontline healthcare worker, he shared that he will not comply with the vaccine mandate.

Melissa Kelly, a Modesto resident, spoke in favor of adopting an official ban on COVID-19 passports.

Molly Lewis, mother of three and a professional in the community, voiced concerns regarding the school vaccine mandate. She shared concerns regarding the accuracy of the COVID-19 data. She stated she will not comply with the mandate.

Adele Quessenberry, a grandmother of four, shared concerns regarding the vaccine mandate. She suggested listening to what other doctors have to say.

Debbie shared her support for the right to choose concerning COVID-19 vaccinations. She noted the high recovery rate for children with COVID-19 and that the vaccine was approved as an emergency status vaccine. She voiced concerns that discriminating against individuals that are not vaccinated is a violation of the Civil Rights Act. She noted that OSHA is not enforcing recording requirements. She asked the Board to stand up for the people.

Sherri Boer spoke regarding the importance of freedom. She believes people have a duty to vote, pay taxes and obey laws, and that the government has no right to come into people's homes.

Janice Higgins, a respiratory therapist, stated that she believes too much money is involved with big pharma concerning COVID-19. She stated that preventative medicine is not being used, and that she takes hydroxychloroquine. She does not think children should be vaccinated because there are no long-term studies on side effects. She also noted that her job was threatened due to her vaccination status.

Ginger Parrish, a nurse, stated that the emergency vaccination is still being used. She stated that the only FDA approved COVID-19 vaccine is Comirnaty and it is no longer being used. She shared concerns regarding the COVID-19 vaccine and vaccine mandate. She asked the Board to come to some type of determination as San Joaquin County did.

Supervisor Withrow returned at 11:43 a.m.

Rebecca Yonan stated that doctors are told they are not allowed to sign exemptions for the COVID-19 vaccine. She asked the Board to look into this issue.

Madalynn Baker stated that as an advanced practice provider she is allowed to give five medical exemptions per year, however, those exemptions have to align with the recommendations of the American Medical Association (AMA), the Advisory Committee on Immunization Practices (ACIP), and the Center for Disease Control (CDC). She shared if these recommendations are not followed you can lose your license.
