

No Animals Allowed

In a Food Facility

Except Service Dogs

(California Health and Safety Code §114259.5)

California Retail Food Code §113903 - "Service animal" means any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability, or that is in training to do that work or perform those tasks. "Service animal" does not include any other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained.

The crime deterrent effects of an animal's presence and the provision of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this subdivision.

Fraudulently misrepresenting service dogs is a misdemeanor
