A visit to the Riverbank Library this September for crafts and book clubs offers fun for all ages!

Following Story Time on September 8, preschool age children and their families are invited listen to Riverbank Mayor Richard O'Brien read a special story. This month's "Mayor's Book Club" will begin at 11 a.m.

Teens and tweens are invited to participate in a Perler Bead Craft on September 17 at 3:30 p.m. Crafters can use colorful Perler Beads to create a variety of designs and shapes which will fuse together when heated with an iron. Craft books will also be on display and available for checkout.

Join the Riverbank Library's Book Club on September 23 at 4 p.m for a discussion of English Creek by Ivan Doig. A limited number of books are available at the library's circulation desk. Book clubs offer an opportunity for community members to meet and enrich each other's enjoyment of literature.

People of all ages can paint rocks at the Riverbank Library on September 24 at 3:30 p.m. Acrylic paint and rocks will be provided, however participants are also invited to bring their own rock to paint. As this craft involves paint, participants are encouraged to wear a protective smock or clothing that can get paint on it. This program will allow crafters to explore color mixing, composition, and fun.
