January Events at the Riverbank Library

This January the Riverbank Library will offer free programs for all ages, including a Covered California Workshop, an afternoon of crafts and games for teens, and book club events for preschoolers as well as adults.

Angela Rodriguez from the San Joaquin Pride Center will hold an informative session regarding the Affordable Care Act on Jan. 3 at 12:30 p.m. Participants will gain insight into the new health care laws under Covered California. This free program is designed to help community members acquire the information necessary to make decisions about health care.

Riverbank Mayor Richard O'Brien will read to preschool children and their families following Story Time on Jan. 5. This month's "Mayor's Book Club" will begin at 11 a.m.

Teens can enjoy an afternoon of crafts and games on Jan. 21 at 3:30 p.m. Teens will have the opportunity to use the library's button maker to make one-inch buttons using personal pictures, magazine images, or original artwork. Video game enthusiasts can compete in interactive games on the library's Wii console. Younger children are welcome to participate with parental supervision.

Community members are invited to join the Riverbank Library Book Club on Jan. 27 at 4 p.m. for a discussion of Until Tuesday: A Wounded Warrior and the Golden Retriever Who Saved Him by Luis Carlos Montalvan and Bret Witter. A limited number of books are available for checkout at the library's circulation desk.

The Riverbank Library is located at 3442 Santa Fe St. in Riverbank. For more information, please contact the Riverbank Library at (209) 869-7008.
