Stanislaus Regional 9-1-1 appoints new Director

Stanislaus County - The Stanislaus Regional 9-1-1 Emergency Dispatch Joint Powers Authority (JPA) voted to appoint Captain Joel Broumas from the Modesto Police Department as its new Director at the February 18, 2015 JPA Commission Meeting. Captain Broumas is assigned to the position for a period of 12-months.

Mr. Broumas will provide leadership over all SR 9-1-1 operations during this time and will support the JPA Commission in their efforts to evaluate each of the recommendations included in the recent study completed by the Matrix Consulting Group. Mr. Broumas' responsibilities will be fully focused on leading SR 9-1-1 and he will not retain any ancillary assignments with the Modesto Police Department.

"We are excited to have Captain Broumas join the SR 9-1-1 team," stated Modesto City Manager Jim Holgersson. "Captain Broumas is a proven leader with a steadfast dedication to serving the citizens of our community. We are confident he will effectively lead SR 9-1-1 into the future." Stan Risen, Chief Executive Officer for Stanislaus County, expressed "we are very pleased with the choice of Captain Broumas and look forward to working collaboratively in making 9-1-1 services even better for the residents of Stanislaus County."

Captain Broumas has been with the Modesto Police Department since 1990 and in total has more than 30-years of experience in law enforcement. He was promoted to Sergeant in 1997, Lieutenant in 2000 and Captain in 2005. His experience covers a wide range from detective, Field Training Officer, Crime Reduction Task Force, to comprehensive administrative oversight of operations of the Modesto Police Department including Crisis Response.
