2nd Chance Week

Second Chance Week is a national public awareness campaign to promote the use of specific recycled items under the motto "Reuse, Repair, Resale and Donate".

This year Stanislaus County, in partnership with the City of Modesto will be collecting new and gently used baby clothes. All the items collected will be distributed through five local nonprofit agencies, Center for Human Services, Modesto Pregnancy Center, Salvation Army, Cal Safe and the Modesto Gospel Mission, who will give them to residents and families in need throughout our community.

Please take the time to gather your donations and bring to any one of our many collection sites located in Stanislaus County and Modesto. Your contributions can truly make the difference and we look forward to providing much needed necessities for our babies and children. Look for donation bins at 1010 10th Street in downtown Modesto, City and County Libraries, the State Theater of Modesto and O'Brien's Markets.

For more information in Stanislaus County, please contact Environmental Resources at (209) 525-6700 or email Denise London at dlondon@envres.org or Janice McClendon at jmccclendon@envres.org. For more information in the City of Modesto, please contact the Solid Waste Division at (209) 577-5495 or email Vicki Rice at vrice@modestogov.com.
