

News Release

For Immediate Release
April 05, 2019
Contact: Evelyn Starman
Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors
209.525.6440
Starmane@stancounty.com

Supervisor Chiesa: Bringing Government to the People

Stanislaus County, CA – Stanislaus County Supervisor Vito Chiesa, District 2, will host Turlock Government Night on Thursday, April 25, 2019 from 6:00 to 7:30 PM at Carnegie Arts Center, 250 N. Broadway, Turlock, CA. The Carnegie Arts Center is opening its doors for this town hall style gathering of federal, state, and local officials.

“I am excited to once again host this event. This is a great way to learn about issues that matter,” said Supervisor Chiesa. “Government nights are all about creating an opportunity for people to ask their representatives questions, and get answers, from all levels of government.

Panel members will share their take on regional issues and legislative priorities that will impact members of the community. Turlock residents will have their concerns addressed and hear directly from elected officials in this face-to-face forum.

“I’m excited to have government night hosted in Turlock. I’m committed to representing all of Turlock,” said Mayor Amy Bublak. “Outreach is important, and Supervisor Chiesa’s Government Night will assist us to focus on issues that are unique to Turlock.”

The evening will consist of:

- SPEAKERS:
- Congressman Josh Harder, 10th Congressional District
 - Assemblymember Adam Gray, 21st Assembly District of California
 - Stanislaus County Supervisor Vito Chiesa, District 2
 - Mayor Amy Bublak, City of Turlock

-MORE-

-CONTINUED -

Supervisor Vito Chiesa and a panel of elected officials, including Congressman Josh Harder, California State Assemblymember Adam Gray and Mayor Amy Bublak will present information and commentary on challenges and opportunities and take questions directly from the audience.

Congressman Josh Harder states, “These are the kind of events that we need to keep having on a regular basis—by coming together, listening to the community, and working together from the city, county, all the way up to Congressional level, we can make sure everyone’s voice is heard.”

“Congress and the State Legislature rely on city and county governments to be effective, and they equally rely on us. Government Night is an important opportunity to get everyone together in a room to identify and solve problems,” said Assemblymember Adam Gray. “Supervisor Chiesa is one of the best at making government work for our constituents, and I appreciate his partnership.”

Seating is free but limited to the capacity of the facility. For questions about the event, accessibility or to request accommodations please contact Evelyn Starman at StarmanE@stancounty.com or 209-525-6440. Ten days’ notice is needed if accommodations are requested.

#####