STANISLAUS COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO HOST 2025 STATE OF THE COUNTY ADDRESS

Tuesday, July 1, 2025, at 9:00 a.m.

Stanislaus County, Calif. – The Stanislaus County Board of Supervisors will host its annual State of the County Address on Tuesday, July 1, 2025, at 9:00 a.m. The event will take place in the Stanislaus County Board Chambers, located at 1010 10th Street (basement level), in downtown Modesto.

This annual address provides an opportunity for the Chair of the Board of Supervisors, Buck Condit, to reflect on the past year's accomplishments, highlight key County initiatives, and share priorities for the year ahead. The event will be open to the public, live-streamed on the County's website and YouTube channel, and broadcast live on local cable television.

"As we continue to work on our long-term goals while responding to the needs of today, this is an important moment to come together, share progress, and look toward the future of Stanislaus County," said Chair Buck Condit. "We welcome community members to attend or tune in to hear more about the good work that's happening in every corner of our county."

The Annual State of the County Address is part of the County's ongoing commitment to transparency, community engagement, and public service.

ABOUT STANISLAUS COUNTY

Stanislaus County was established in 1854 in the heart of California's Central Valley. With an economy and heritage deeply rooted in agriculture, it is home to a growing, diverse community of more than 550,000 people. "We build community" is more than a mission; it is vital to our success in becoming a community of choice where people live, work, and thrive – a place worthy of calling "home."
