Contact Stanislaus County Planning Department at 209-525-6330 to verify that your parcel qualifies for an agricultural storage building.

 Agricultural storage buildings require a letter of intended use to be submitted at time of application submittal. This letter is to include the site address, description of the proposed structure, what the structure will be storing and a signature. This may be used to help determine and verify the occupancy of the structure.

Please be advised that each project and parcel is unique in and of itself therefore; any fees given prior to plan approval are for estimating purposes only. These fees may not be all inclusive and could be subject to change.
