1. Call to Order and Introductions
   Chief Probation Officer Mark Ferriera called the meeting to order at 1:32 p.m., and members of the group introduced themselves.

2. Public Comment
   No one provided public comment.

3. Adoption of the Minutes from the November 13, 2025, meeting.
   MOTION: Jennifer Jennison. SECOND: Doris Foster. The minutes from the November 13, 2025, meeting were approved unanimously.

4. Sheriff's Office Presentation (The Presentation is attached)
   Sheriff's Office Lieutenant, Ryan Maxwell, and the team presented on the Sheriff's Office's programming and vocational initiatives, highlighting efforts to legitimize certifications, expand educational pathways, and provide incarcerated individuals with meaningful skills.

   The presentation included the following:

   - Adult Detention Facilities
   - Community Partners
   - Financials
   - Re-Entry and Enhanced Alternatives to Custody Training Center (REACT) demographics
   - Educational Classes
     - Educational Programs
       - Various educational offerings include:
       - High School Equivalency (HSE)
       - Women of Wisdom (WOW)
       - Come Back Kids (CBK)
       - American Community Corrections Institute (ACCI), self-paced trauma-informed courses, including some Spanish-language options.
     - Classes & Enrollees
     - ACCI Enrollees
     - Educational Demographics
     - Learning Quest Highlights July 2024-June 2025 and July 2025-December 2025
       - The stats combine both in-custody and Day Reporting Center participants, while graduation numbers represent the REACT program only.
     - 2024-2025 MJC Highlights
     - Staff Lead Program Highlights
   - Vocational Training
     - Vocation Programs
       - The vocational training program is being restructured to focus on certifications and skills that directly lead to employment.
       - Current and planned programs include:
       - Landscaping and grounds maintenance
       - Construction trades through a new partnership with Northern California Construction Training (NCCT).
       - Welding is under review because most participants are released before earning certification. Ways for participants to continue training after release are being explored.
       - Additional vocational certifications include:

        - Window tint installation
        - Food Handler certification
        - Janitorial services
        - Forklift operation
        - Skid steer operation
        - The commercial truck driving program has been temporarily paused pending evaluation of employment outcomes due to its high cost.
        - Agriculture Program
            - Participants care for chickens and collect eggs used by the facility kitchen, teaching animal husbandry and responsibility.
            - Approximately 60 goats are used throughout the county for vegetation management and wildfire prevention, providing valuable work experience while serving the community.
    - Vocation and Enrollees
    - Vocation Demographics
    - Reentry Services
    - Salvation Army Home Detention
        - Provided approximately five transitional housing beds for individuals on home detention who would otherwise be ineligible due to homelessness.
        - The program removes housing barriers, allowing eligible participants to transition from custody while remaining under supervision.
    - Military Veterans Program (M.V.P)
        - The Veterans Housing Unit provides specialized programming for verified veterans who agree to leave gang affiliations and jail politics behind while participating.
        - The structured environment mirrors military culture and promotes accountability and support.
        - A partnership with a transitional housing program in Monterey County provides housing, employment assistance, clothing, food, and other resources for veterans after release.
        - A success story of a veteran who returned to thank the program, crediting it with changing and possibly saving his life, was shared.

Christine Huber praised the Sheriff's Office for the graduation ceremonies, noting that it is meaningful for participants and their families to celebrate educational accomplishments.

5. Public Defender's Office Presentation (The Presentation is attached)
Shelli Margarite and Gabriela Verduzco Ortiz from the Public Defender's Office presented on their multidisciplinary client support services, early representation program, and collaborative efforts to address underlying challenges, reduce recidivism, and facilitate successful reintegration, with active partnerships across agencies.

The presentation highlighted the Public Defender's Office Client Support Services (CSS) Program and its comprehensive approach to reducing recidivism by addressing the underlying issues that contribute to individuals' involvement in the criminal justice system. The program combines quality legal representation with intensive case management, social work services, and strong community partnerships to help clients successfully reintegrate into the community while improving public safety.

Established in 2021 with two Caseworkers, the CSS Unit has expanded significantly to include 10 Client Support Specialists, four Social Workers, and one Paralegal, reflecting the growing demand for supportive services. The unit provides early intervention, care coordination, resource navigation, family engagement, and connections to housing, behavioral health, substance use treatment, employment, and public benefits.

A major component of the program is the Early Representation Program (ERP), which places staff in the county jail to engage individuals within 24 hours of arrest. By identifying behavioral health, substance use, and social service needs immediately, staff can begin coordinating treatment, reconnect clients with existing services, and involve family members before court proceedings begin.

The presentation also included several innovative initiatives, including:

- Jail-Based Competency Training (JBCT) support utilizing therapy dogs to build trust and engage individuals with severe mental illness.
- The Collaborative Courts and Pathway to Advocacy Transformation and Hope (PATH) Program, which assists individuals returning from state hospitals by coordinating medications, housing, and community services to prevent repeated arrests and hospitalizations.
- The Hub, a collaborative drop-in resource center providing one-stop access to employment services, public benefits, expungement assistance, educational workshops, food resources, and other supportive services through partnerships with numerous community agencies.

Program data demonstrates substantial growth and impact. The CSS Unit currently manages 895 active cases, has completed 583 triage cases in the past year, and has served 3,305 clients.

Several success stories illustrated the program's effectiveness. Clients highlighted in these stories, after receiving individualized assessments, behavioral health treatment, developmental disability services, housing assistance, and ongoing case management, achieved stable housing, sobriety, and employment opportunities, and remained free of new criminal offenses. These examples reinforced the importance of identifying each client's underlying needs rather than focusing solely on criminal charges.

The presentation concluded by emphasizing that the Public Defender's multidisciplinary model not only improves individual outcomes but also reduces the burden on the criminal justice system, strengthens public safety, and promotes long-term community stability through early intervention, collaboration, and comprehensive support services.

6. Program Updates:

Probation Department:
Since the last CCP meeting on November 13, 2025:

The Day Reporting Center on Hackett Road hosted 3 Tattoo Removal Events. The next event will be held on Tuesday, July 14, 2026, from 12:30 p.m. to approximately 3:30 p.m. This service is now open to the public. Tattoo removal can be a life-changing opportunity for individuals seeking a fresh start. Anyone who may benefit from this service is encouraged to attend.

7 recent Regional Apprehension Team (RAT) operations were conducted with multiple agencies, resulting in 71 searches and 30 arrests.

GEO Group:
The GEO Group provides Domestic Violence and Parenting classes at the Day Reporting Center. They began offering services in November 2025 and have already reported a strong completion rate.

Nirvana:
Nirvana reported continued success and expansion of its sober living program, including the opening of three new homes to increase bed capacity. Through a partnership with the County's Behavioral Health Bridge Housing (BHBH) program, seven clients are receiving long-term sober living support for up to a year, promoting greater stability and successful transitions to independent housing. Increased collaboration with community partners, including participation at The Hub, has improved client outcomes and reduced the revolving-door cycle of repeated placements.

Center for Human Services Agency (CHS):
The Center for Human Services reported the progress and a success story resulting from its Less Restrictive Programming (LRP) through the Youth Navigation Center. Since the program began: 7 shelter placements have been made, of which 6 were unduplicated; 4 participants have successfully transitioned from shelter to transitional housing; 1 returned to custody due to probation violations and shelter abandonment; 1 remains in shelter and is on track to move into permanent housing in July.

Learning Quest:
Learning Quest announced four new public workshops beginning in July, including certified janitorial training, ServSafe food handler certification, hospitality training with hands-on experience at local nonprofit events, and an office assistant program. The Elevate Community Partnership Center was also renovated to provide a welcoming space that provides food, clothing, technology, life skills, financial literacy, and career support for justice-involved individuals. Learning Quest will host a High School Equivalency graduation ceremony on September 17, 2026, at the State Theatre.

District Attorney's Office:
The District Attorney's Office reported a successful 20th annual Candlelight Vigil for homicide victims, which provided families with an opportunity to connect with prosecutors and law enforcement. The office also announced continued staffing progress, filling three Victim Advocate positions, including the CCP post-conviction advocate and the Serious Victim Unit advocate, with highly experienced staff.

Leaders In Community Alternatives (LCA):
LCA continues to monitor 90-day employment retention among participants. Four employed individuals also completed vocational training and the 32-session CBI-Employment program. Participants attended two community job fairs, resulting in two interviews, and LCA continues working to expand employment opportunities. The organization also maintains its REACT jail classes, with recent participants already returning for continued support after release.

Community Services Agency (CSA):
CSA discussed implementing the new eligibility requirements for the Federal Government Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits, in addition to the Medicaid/MediCal requirements. An emphasis is placed on educating service providers and the public about available resources, eligibility changes, and multiple ways to access assistance, so individuals can remain informed and connected to services.

Workforce Development:
Workforce Development reported strong collaboration through The Hub, which serves approximately 80 individuals each month. By providing employers with letters of crime explanation, work opportunity tax credits, and bonding assistance, the program has helped approximately 40 participants secure employment and will continue to monitor them for one year to support long-term employment success.

Workforce Development maintains a list of approximately 20 pages of employers who have expressed a willingness to hire justice-involved individuals. When an employer remains hesitant after a background review, staff provides a letter of explanation and offer a $50,000 fidelity bond, which often helps secure the employment opportunity.

The next scheduled presentation will tentatively be provided by the District Attorney's Office and the Probation Department at the September CCP meeting.

7. Next Meeting:

The next Community Corrections Partnership meeting will be on September 10, 2026, at 1:30 p.m.

The meeting adjourned at 2:57 p.m.

A note from the Instructor:

Isabel Andrade is our Northern Star for REACT. Isabel's trajectory remains a powerful example of what is possible. She was part of our first cohort 2.5 years ago, when only four women enrolled in the course. She earned her A while incarcerated, transferred to campus immediately upon release, and earned straight A's on campus. She successfully transferred to CSU Stanislaus, though her academic record would have made her competitive at any institution. For personal reasons, she chose Stanislaus State, where she is now double majoring in psychology and sociology with plans to pursue advanced degrees. She recently earned a scholarship in recognition of her academic achievement.

Isabel was hired as a contract employee at MJC, served as President of the Rising Scholars Network student club during her time on campus, and is currently serving as a UC Berkeley Underground Scholars Ambassador.

STAFF LEAD PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

PUPS FOR PROGRESS

Twice a week, Animal Control partners with our program by bringing in dogs that have been placed on the euthanasia list. Participants engage with the dogs through supervised socialization, learning and practicing empathetic engagement. These interactions create meaningful therapeutic benefits for both the participants and the animals.

The Next Chapter

We recently completed the second round of our book club program in the female unit. A Deputy selects the book and creates a reading plan for participants. The group meets once a week to discuss assigned chapters, answer discussion questions, and connect the book's themes to real-life experiences. At the end of the program, participants watch the movie adaptation based on the book they read.

Public Defender Client Support Services Program

Community Corrections Partnership Quarterly Meeting, June 18, 2026

About the Public Defender's Office

WHY WE EXIST

The Public Defender's Office exists to safeguard the constitutional right to legal representation and to promote justice, equity, and fairness within the criminal legal system.

WHAT WE DO

We provide comprehensive legal defense to individuals facing criminal charges while also delivering service programs aimed at reducing recidivism, addressing underlying causes of justice involvement, and supporting successful reintegration into the community.

HOW WE MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Through skilled advocacy, innovative programs, and a commitment to upholding the rule of law, we strengthen public trust in the justice system and contribute to safer, more resilient communities.

Why Supportive Services in the Public Defender's Office?

We identify needs early by recognizing barriers to stability before many other systems do.

We leverage trusted relationships to engage clients in services and support they might otherwise decline.

We connect clients to community resources through coordinated partnerships that promote stability and positive outcomes.

Cycle of Recidivism

Client Support Services Unit

A multidisciplinary team of non-legal advocates focused on addressing the underlying causes of system involvement and connecting clients to services that support long-term success.

By stabilizing lives and strengthening support, we reduce system burden, decrease recidivism, improve legal system outcomes and promote public safety.

- 10 FTE Client Support Specialists
- 4 FTE Social Workers
- 1 Paralegal

- Care Coordination
- Supportive Counseling
- Advocacy
- Peer Support
- System Navigation
- Connection to resources
- Case Management
- Additional supportive services for success

Building a Comprehensive Client Support Model

Early Representation Program (ERP)

- Client Support Staff embedded in jail
- Reach clients as soon after arrest as possible
- Identify underlying needs that led to system involvement (mental health, SUD, housing, etc.)
- Link to services, diversion and collaborative courts
- Develop coordinated discharge plans
- Connect with family
- Provide case management

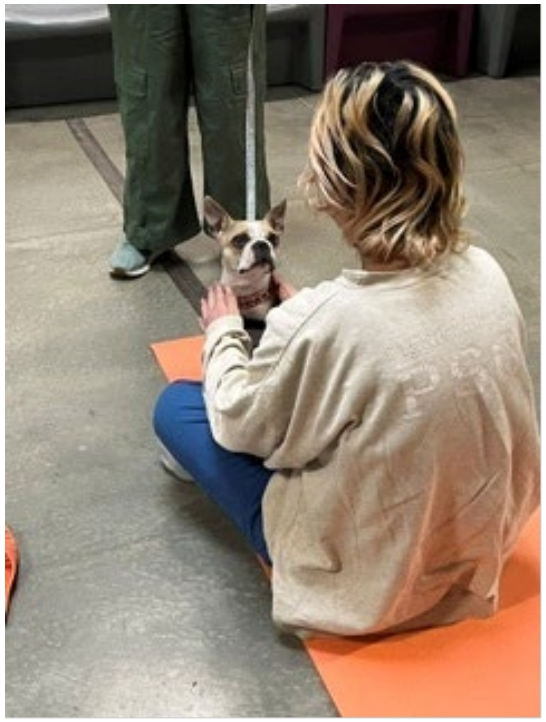

Therapy Dogs

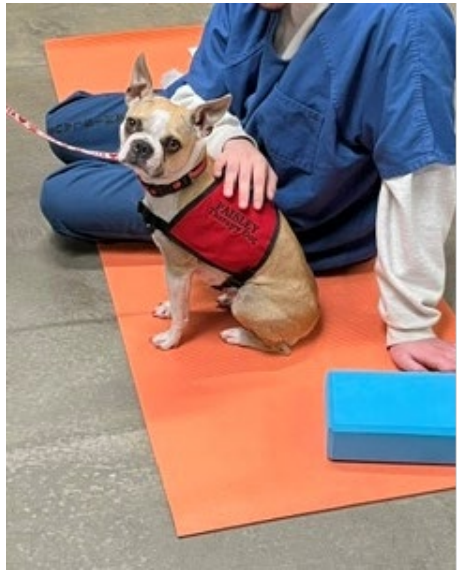

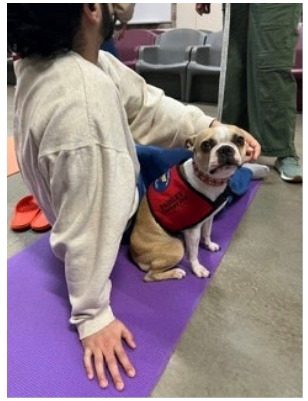

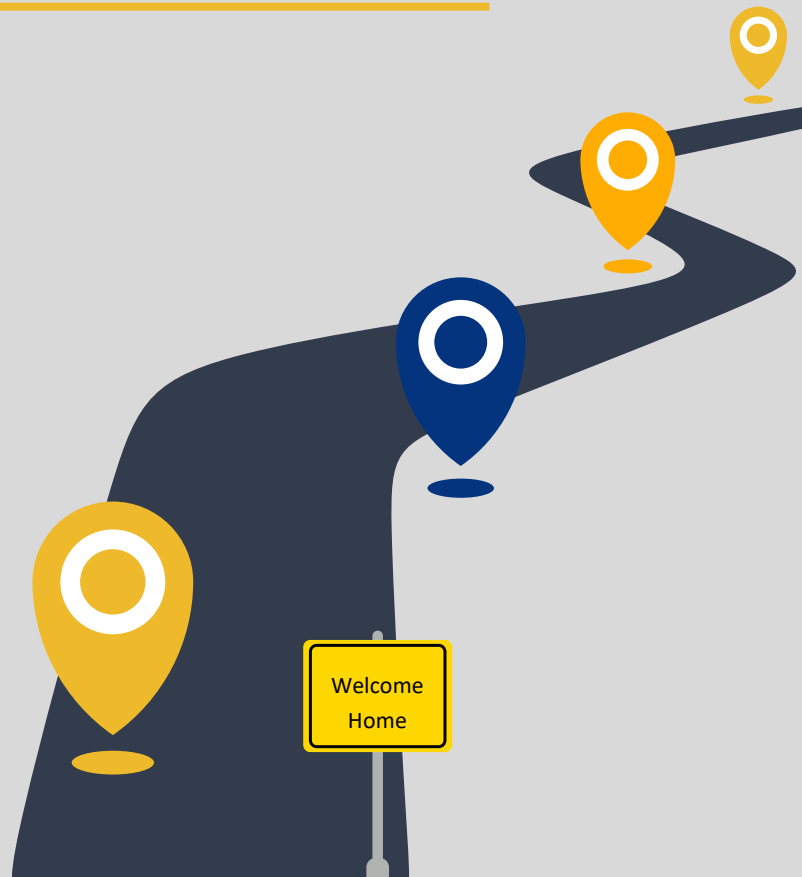

Pathway to Advocacy Transformation and Hope (PATH)

- Focus on DSH returns and the IST population
- Provide medication support
- Bridge gap between incarceration and release
- Assist with access to community resources
- Connect to housing and employment

the hub

Resource and re-entry drop-in center for community members to access supportive services, workforce development, literacy classes, behavioral health counseling, peer-led lived-experience workshops, benefits activation, basic needs, navigation and case support.

The Impact of Early Intervention and Support Services

- Stabilizes clients at the earliest point of system contact
- Reduces unnecessary custody time and overall system strain
- Lowers recidivism through early intervention and continuity of care
- Improves legal system outcomes and client participation
- Strengthens public safety through prevention, stability, and reentry support

Client Support Data

Current open CSS cases: 895

Triage cases over past year: 583

Total served in program: 3305

Success Story #1

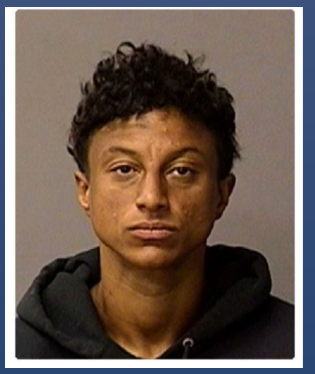

Focused on addressing the underlying causes of system involvement and connecting client to services that support long-term success.

- 1997-2024: 23 cases
- Deaf: communication frustration
- Developmental disability
- Eligible for regional center services and receiving wrap around services
- Living independently for almost one year with no new charges

Success Story #2

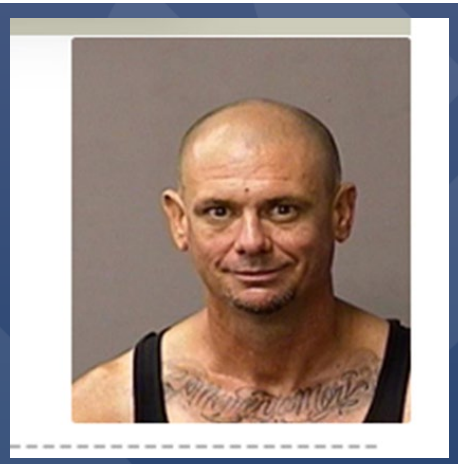

Thank You to Robert my case manager and all the additional staff that played a role in my recovery and dismissal! I have been on my own since 18 struggling with addiction, mental health and homelessness. I started using at 13 years old due to severe sexual, mental and physical abuse. This lead to a life of instability and incarceration. Due to the Public Defenders office, ~~and my~~ my treatment team, and God I am 1 year and 6 months clean and sober, and actively participating to recover my mental health and heal from trauma! If it wasn't for this program I don't know where I would be or if I ever would of recieved my second chance! I hope to one day be an example to homeless youth and young adults everywhere that with a little grace and a lot of God we don't have to leave our dreams on the pillow when we wake up in the morning!

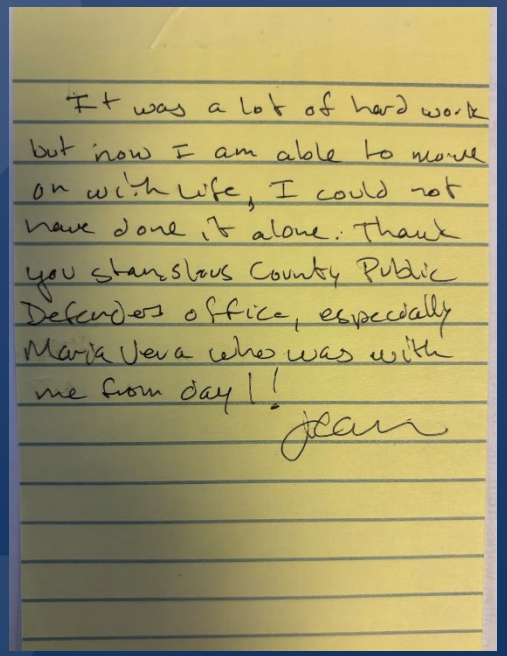

and will be returning to school in the fall

Success Story #3

"It was a lot of hard work but now I am able to move on with life, I could not have done it alone. Thank you Stanislaus County Public Defender's office, especially Maria Vera who was with me from day 1!" – James
